CHICAGO, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

RACING AT HARLEM.

Harlem was the scene of great activity yesterday, the crowd being large and much given to speculation. The pencilers were augmented in number, twenty regular and two field bookmakers drawing in for two days. The public seems to fancy the batch of layers of odds present this season at the local racecourses, and the student of the betting side of turf history can easily define the reason for this predilection, inasmuch as now the percentage against the player is much smaller than when some one hundred and twenty-five years ago the English bookmaker had from 8 to 13 percent on his side. Competition has forced the pencilers to be liberal and now with $170 a day expense staring him in the face, he is lucky to make a six per cent winning book. The weather was perfect, the track fast.

It has come to a pass in racing where no one can say five minutes at a time that he knows where he stands. Yesterday Jim Blackburn ran away in his preliminary, threw the stable boy that was exercising him, ran a mile or more, then was brought to the stand and after examination excused by Col. Clark. His price had advanced from 8 to 30 to 1. In the new book ordered the prices were identically the same as in the original book. A moment after they were posted Rutter was substituted for R. Narvaez on Lew Hopper, whose price receded from 12 to 8 and closed at 7 to 1. Glenmoyne limped while trotting to the post. He was third at the first sixteenth and thereafter not in the race, pulling up away back with Prince of India. Loyalotta was first off to an excellent start, but Lady Callahan soon passed on and the pair ran closely together until the head of the homestretch where Loyalotta backed up, finishing fifth. Lew Hopper had been fourth at the first sixteenth but Rutter keeping the rail got his mount into third place at the half mile ground and so struck the straight. At the last eighth Lew Hopper and Lady Callahan were racing in front with Inconstancy third. Sutton, last at the first quarter, had improved somewhat, but was even now too far back to have a winning chance and he finally landed fourth several lengths behind Lew Hopper, who just managed to win in a hard drive from Lady Callahan, she beating Inconstancy, third, two lengths.

To a fair start for all except Alice B., the first to show in front for the second race was Ach, but he dropped back and Rio Chico and Anna Held made the pace, Flirtation and Miss Marks being well up. In the homestretch the race was reduced to a match between Rio Chico and Miss Marks, the former winning by the closest of margins. Ramlet, coming fast at the end, beat Ach for the third money. Close behind came Flirtation, she some lengths better than a close bunch of four, headed by Willie Howard. "Absolutely" ran Revanna, a supposedly "fair kind of proposition." This race was much better played than have been others of like kind, several horses being thought to have reasonable chance. Revanna was thrown against the fence and her boot cut off as she ran in the bunch on the far turn.

The handicap promised well, The Devil and David Tenny opening at 2 to 1 each, which price had most likely been that of Storm King, had he not been forced to carry a five pound penalty for beating May W. on Wednesday. Fervor has lost caste of late and 8 to 1 was to be had against this fairly good handicap animal. The race proved to be a walkover for Found, she leading all the way after getting away with a bulge. Charina delayed the start and was last away from the post, finishing in a drive with Fervor, who was beaten off after showing third on the upper turn. Storm King was second and The Devil third nearly all the way, but in the homestretch the latter ran away from the others (Storm King finished third) and was closing rapidly on Found at the finish. Some persons advanced the opinion that if Beauchamp had made more use of the second horse early in the race that he might have won. Others said: "They allowed Found to go on thinking she would come back." The chances are that the best horse won and could have done so by a much greater distance. David Tenny ran in blinkers. He got into third position on the far turn, but The Devil always held him safe.

No one can be expected to beat horse races, or even enjoy looking at them, when a horse improves in two days as has Judge Tarvin. Tuesday last he started at five-eighths (won by Andes in 1:02) and finished at the sixteenth post after making no showing whatever. Yesterday he had plenty of speed and, getting off in front, led to within a few strides of the wire, where he was beaten by a stake filly, Espionage. At his previous start Andes (just out of the maiden class) had beaten him off. The track betting indicated nothing by way of a coup, but there are other places to bet money on a horse. The excuse was given that an inferior boy was up at his former start. When has Everett been considered a jockey of grand merit? Queen of Song, in the front rank at the start, beat Batten for the third money. The favorite was second to Judge Tarvin until well into the straight, entering which Be True was as good as fourth. Approval, a strong tip, did nothing, and Mr. Johnson was attacked with the "slows." Mazie V. was beaten about the same distance as was Judge Tarvin Tuesday, noting which a cynic sneered, "Look out for her."

Paul Griggs reminds one of an old trotting horse named Deck Wright, who was always favorite and never won. Pat Dunne's gray was a rosy thing yesterday, if the price goes for anything, and many a smart man took a tumble, the argument that the horse has only three legs being stood off with "a horse of his class can beat such dogs with only one leg on each side." Getting away well, Paul Griggs ran alongside St. Alfonse D. for three-quarters, then shaking off his tormentor he looked all over a winner at the last hundred yards when all at once he faltered and half way home cried "take it" to Foulclif, who had always been as good as third. But Cushing's well backed horse did not get the money, this being grabbed by Tranby in the last few strides. "Cass" Sloan rode the latter and had his mount cut off on the last turn, so that it was a pretty bit of work to get Tranby first to the wire, as he had to take the extreme outside. Moreover, "Cass" got a bat in the eye from a clod; but what matters that to a Sloan! Necedah even beat Paul Griggs, so getting the third money. Gold Band was prominent the first part of the journey and Amanda ran well. Celtic Bard, with Rutter up, carried a lot of wise money.

Barrisso, the horse, which, at Harlem on Wednesday won the last race of the day, was according to Barney Schreiber weeded out from G. C. Bennett's string last spring and bought by two "hustlers" for a song. The enterprising owners, seeing that their purchase was greatly improved, had him fitted for a race and shipped to Chicago, where, lucky enough to "get a man down" for $1,000, they delivered the goods. The bookmakers naturally thought the boys were selling "an angel" a gold brick, and taking all the money offered, still kept advancing Barrisso's price. Lady Juliet, the animal that came within an ace of spoiling the "good thing" on Barrisso was a "me too," as she was also touted by a second set of "hustlers." She has been laid up all summer. They say if McCann had not lost his whip, Lady Juliet would have won.

The migration of racing stables to the south will begin today when will be shipped to Latonia Spirituelle, Batten and the others of T. C. McDowell's string. "Buck Franklin is also off with Hardy Pardee, Yuba Dam, Ramiro II, and other horses of W. E. Applegate and "Hops" Laudeman. The exodus will catch trainer McEvoy, he taking John Bright and his stable companions.

Flora Louise, off in front for the closing race, was passed at the quarter by Dave Waldo. Then Belle of Memphis took the track, and not again headed, won as she pleased from Time-maker, who beat Verify three lengths. The last named had hard work to beat Tenole for the third money. The others were never in it.

It is thought by some horsemen that racing next winter will meet with less patronage than formerly in California. The meeting at Sacramento was dubbed "a frost," the bad conditions being accounted for by failure of crops.

J. H. McCormick shipped all his horses to Sacramento Sunday last. From there the string goes to Los Angeles, where J. F. Caldwell does the starting.

THE SEAGRAM SALE.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 29.—Mr. J. Seagram sold a number of his horses in training at auction today. The prices realized were as follows:

Prince Plausible, John Flynn, $450; Sir Casimir, F. W. Dwyer, $275; Weller, F. W. Dwyer, $1,000; Floridian, F. W. Boshan, $175; Wreath, J. S. Rothert, $800; Minstrely, R. L. Gibson, $110; Defiance, P. M. Civill, $375; Haytedeer, A. Hoar, $225; Quack Quack, Capt. Johnson, $100; Downright, J. C. Cameron, $100; Sugden, Alex. Shields, $125; Reindeer, Dr. Lewis, $120; The Tann, H. P. Waller, $10.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The destruction by lightning last Monday of Applegate & McMeekin's stallion, Simon Magnus, was distinctly a severe loss to the American turf. His owners, it is said, had only recently refused an offer of a large sum for him, made in behalf of Lord Beresford, who wished to take the horse back to England. Few more richly bred horses have ever been imported. His sire, St. Simon, is one of the illustrious list of "triple crown" winners, and for a number of years has been the premier sire of England, while his dam (Wheel of Fortune) was one of the greatest of the band of grand mares owned and raced by Lord Falmouth when he was winning nearly all the good things of the English turf year after year. Such blood lines could hardly have failed to produce good results in this country.

The Fonso yearling purchased by Charles Patterson from Applegate & McMeekin for $4,000 several months ago is said to be a real crackerjack. Mr. Patterson has given the colt several try-outs with his good three-year-old Great Bend, and they have been eminently satisfactory. Patterson said the yearling in several trials carried 120 pounds to Great Bend's 100, and beat the latter in a quarter of a mile dash every time. The colt is at present of rare promise.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Jockey Maher is having a hard time of it at the hands of the howling dervishes of the New York dailies. In a streak of bad luck it has been his misfortune to ride a loser in each of his last twenty-three races. This has led to a chorus of denunciation so fierce that it seems nothing short of hanging and quartering will still the torrent of execration hurled at Tod Sloan's late rival.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Fortune is scowling at the Fleischmanns. They have been liberal and enterprising owners, and they have had a great deal of unmerited ill luck. Formerly they owned Nosey. He was taken from them in a selling race. Last week they got him back in a selling race. In the same race S. C. Hildreth claimed George Keene from them. Nosey, in the Fleischmann colors, and ridden by Maher, was the favorite in the second race. Maher rode him stupidly, and he was third behind Ben Ronald and Estaca. In the fifth race George Keene, in Hildreth's colors, and not ridden by Maher, who rode him stupidly last week, but ridden by Clawson, defeated Macy, Whistling Con and White Frost. So many mishaps have occurred to the Fleischmanns through no fault of their own that it will not be surprising if they sell out their stable and retire from the turf at the end of this season.—New York Tribune.

Of speculative prospects at the coming Latonia meeting yesterday's Enquirer says: "W. E. Applegate, the principal stockholder in the Latonia Association, arrived from Chicago yesterday and spent the afternoon at the Newport track. Colonel Applegate has come here this early to arrange details for the coming meeting at Latonia. He stated in answer to a question that there will be "mixed" betting at Latonia. The public, he says, will be given an opportunity to make their own odds through the medium of mutual machines and the auction pools. Several books—the Colonels did not say how many—will also be put on for the accommodation of such as prefer to do their playing in the books. Just how long mutual machines will be on under such circumstances remains to be seen. The attempt to have mutuals with books on was made at Oakley last year, and everybody among local racegoers knows the result. The competition was too much for the mutuals, and they soon went down and out. It hardly seems reasonable to suppose that the result at Latonia will be different. Mutuals cannot exist with books, and it is not a fair test of the popularity of the mutuals to have books on in opposition to them. There is little reason to suppose that auction pools will be a "go" here. Before the meeting is very old no one need be surprised if he finds that book betting is the only kind in vogue at Latonia. Colonel Applegate reports that in addition to other stables that will come from Chicago for the meeting at the Kenton County track is T. C. McDowell, with the crack two-year-old fillies Spirituelle and Rush and other high-class performers. Mr. McDowell's presence will insure a most desirable addition to the jockey ranks in J. Hill, the crack rider in his employ.

For the benefit of whom it may concern Mr. H. Heinsohn states emphatically that he is the sole owner of the horse Daily Racing Form. He especially objects to statements that have been made to the effect that Percy Taylor owns, or ever did own, any interest in the horse.

Winner—Ch. f. by Ben Strome—Favor Ban.
Start straggling. Won handily. Anagram beat the gate and was lucky in the race. She is a good, game filly. Roysterer closed a big gap from a bad beginning. Tyrba was also lucky and extra good today. Easter Card showed the cur and is somewhat out of form. Mark Miles was overweighted but showed an extraordinary flight of speed. He is a good colt with light weight. Kirkwood is a slow beginner and wants a route. He requires strong handling and is good now. Country Dance was off poorly.

Scratched—Mr Phinzy, 114.

Overweights—Country Dance, 2 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Bramble—Lou Dudley.
Start straggling. Won easily. Buella was easily the best. She is a fine weight carrier and was well ridden. Nana H ran a good honest race. She is in extra good form. Marsian is very good on this track. He closed fast from away back. Mount Washington ran well. Leedsville was off well, but stopped to a walk at the end. He dislikes this track. Lady Disdain prefers a light burden, but got away badly. Oxnard requires a strong jockey. Double Quick is not good apparently and ran a bad race. Domineer was much overweighted.

Scratched—George Keene, 140.

Buella, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Nana H., place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Marsian, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Kantaka—Nocturn.
Start fair. Won easily. Kentucky Colonel beat the gate and was probably the best anyway. Prestigitatrice, favored in the weight; and lucky, ran well. Ethelbert closed very strong and gamely from a slow break and was easily second best. Dr. Eichberg showed the cur. Ahom is very ordinary. He is a bad acting horse and climbs too much. Ornamental ran well but was outclassed. She is a speedy filly but got away poorly. His Lordship is best over a route.

Scratched—Kingdon, 123; Onomastus, 125; Matanza, 118; Yankee Man, 112; Mr. Clay, 108; Satirist, 107; K. C. B., 100.

Kentucky Colonel, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Prestigitatrice, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ethelbert, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. h, by Punster—Spray.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a mild drive; second under keen pressure and out to the last ounce. Lew Hopper was ridden to perfection. He is a horse that must be rated, and Rutter filled the bill to a dot. He lay in behind Lady Callahan and Loyaletta until the stretch was reached and went to the front when ready. Lady Callahan got off good, had all of her speed, was well ridden, and had no excuses. She was simply not good enough to beat Lew Hopper today. Sutton never really got on his stride. He has developed into a slow beginner and must have a longer route to do his best. Inconstancy was an easy third. Glenmoynes disliked the track and seemed to prop all the way. Throw his race out. Jim Blackburn ran away a mile while warming up and was excused, a new book being made.
Scratched—Jim Blackburn, 110; Mistral II, 107; Bishop Reed, 110; Warren Point, 107.
Lew Hopper, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Lady Callahan, place, 2 to 1; show, 2 to 3. Inconstancy, show, even.

Winner—Ch. g, by Chesterfield—Jennie D.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of two; next three also driving. Rio Chico was best ridden. He got off on the outside, but Everett at once cut across on the rail and saved ground throughout. When the pinch came he clearly outfinished Caywood on Miss Marks. The latter was much the best and should have won. The boy made his run too soon, and instead of skinning the rails on the turn swung wide, leaving room for Rio Chico to get through. Ramlet was running strong at the end. She was in a bad pocket the last eighth and almost fell at the wire. Watch her. She seems to be a fair sort of filly. Ach had speed but could not stay. He stopped on the turn, but came again. Numa was in a bad place all through the race. Flavius was not on his stride at the start, and was sharply cut off, almost being thrown over the fence.
Scratched—Stamina, 112; Silver Tone, 112; Elizabeth R, 104.
Overweights—Numa, 2 pounds.
Rio Chico, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Miss Marks, place, 7 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Ramlet, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. f, by Buckmaster—Pickup.
Post 5 minutes. Start good for all but Charina. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second and third under keen pressure. Found was at a false price. She got away well on her stride and set a hot pace all the way. Below the sixteenth pole, Reiff, thinking he had the race won, became a trifle careless. It almost cost him the race. Had he gone on about his business the filly would have won easily. The Devil was right there. He swerved at the head of the stretch, but came on again gamely under hand riding and would have won in a few more strides. Storm King stopped under the weight. He was hot after Found, though, the first part of it and the pace was enough to stop almost any horse. David Tenny did his best. He does not seem to be in as good form as he was at Washington Park. Fervor dislikes the track. He may do better at Hawthorne. Charina was outclassed, but ran a corking good race. She belongs in selling races and is good at that game.
Scratched—Dare II, 94.
Corrected weights—Storm King, 112.
Found, place, 11 to 5; show, 7 to 10. The Devil, place, 9 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Storm King, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. f, by Inspector B.—Sun Maid.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving hard; third and fourth driving also. Espionage is back to her spring form again. She was well ridden and held the race safe after the stretch was reached. Bloss made little use of her and waited until Judge Tarvin came back. The latter was well on his stride at the start and showed a fine order of speed. There was a marked difference in this and the colt's last race. Queen of Song had all the bad luck in the race. She was sharply cut off at the start and on the stretch turn. Considering this, her race was an extra good one. Batten may have been short. He was off well and had a lot of speed, but tired in the stretch. Approval's race was a bad one. So was Mr. Johnson's.
Overweights—Approval, 2 pounds; Mr. Johnson, 4; Be True, 2.

Winner—Ch. g, by Kenneth—Lady Fairy.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive of five horses. At the sixteenth post it was anyone's race. Tranby, under a powerful ride, came with a tremendous rush right at the end. He is a loafer, a slow beginner and a hard horse to ride. Passing the half mile ground it did not look as though he had a possible chance. Fonclif, after getting through a tight pinch on the first turn, held his own throughout and ran a nice race. Necedah had a hard time getting through in the stretch; when she did she finished strong. Paul Griggs had no excuses. He was off well on his stride, always had clear sailing and simply stopped when pinched. He swerved badly above the eighth pole but was clear and caused no interference. Bridgeton, from a bad beginning, did exceptionally well. Had he been in the first flight when the barrier went up he would have been a keen contender. Celtic Bard and St. Alfonses D both tired badly. Paul Griggs killed them off.

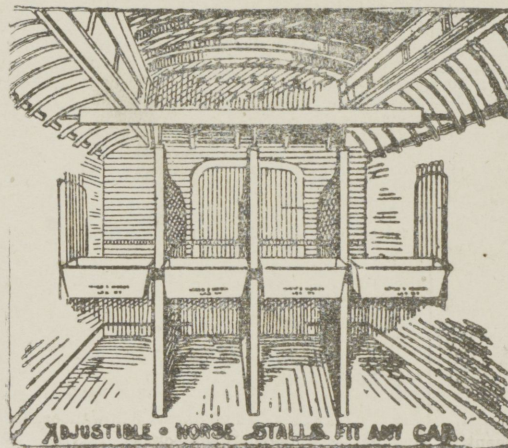

Scratched—Sugar Cane, 99; Greyhurst, 101; Locust Blossom, 99; Elusive, 104; Idle Hour, 102; Oelian, 100.
Overweights—Celtic Bard, 4 pounds; Globe II, 5.
Tranby, place, 7 to 5; show, 1 to 10. Fonclif, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Necedah, show, 5 to 1.

Winner—B. f, by Siddartha—Silver Bangle.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second driving hard; third and fourth doing their best. Belle of Memphis seemed to be the best betting proposition of the day and was heavily played. Martin got her to the front early and took no chances. The filly was at her best and ran a clever race. Timemaker came from far back in the stretch. He was vigorously ridden all the way. Verify and Dr. Sheppard both had bad racing luck. The latter was bumped and interfered with at every turn. Belle of Memphis killed Dave Waldo off the early part of the journey and he stopped almost to a walk at the end. Tenoled, outclassed, ran a nice race. Flora Louise got a running start and had no excuses.
Scratched—Sorrow, 103; Missioner, 106; King Bermuda, 103; Ferroll, 98; Mary Kinsella, 98; Revenge Dare, 98.
Overweights—Flora Louise, 2 pounds.
